

Collaborative Working Seminar - The Legal Considerations

9am - 12.30 pm

Thursday 2nd September

Maclay Murray and Spens LLP

Quartermile One, 15 Lauriston Place, Edinburgh, EH3 9EP

Programme

9.00am - 9.30am	Registration
9.30am - 10.45 am	Introduction <ul style="list-style-type: none">-What is collaborative working?-Why are we talking about it?-Pros and cons of collaborative working?-Different types of collaborative working:<ul style="list-style-type: none">MergersPartnerships/consortiums/clustersSub-contracting-Getting ready for collaboration:<ul style="list-style-type: none">Due diligenceContractual framework-Achieving and managing a successful collaboration-When collaboration comes to an end
10.45am - 11.00am	Coffee/tea
11.00am - 11.20am	Procurement: bidding and information sharing <ul style="list-style-type: none">-Information sharing-Keeping it lawful
11.20am - 11.40am	Issues for Charities <ul style="list-style-type: none">-Power and capacity to collaborate-Successful collaboration resulting in possible merger - the issues-Dealing with OSCR
11.40am - 12.10pm	Workforce Matters <ul style="list-style-type: none">-When will TUPE not apply?-What if TUPE does apply?-Secondments and other arrangements
12.10pm - 12.30pm	Closing remarks and discussion

Collaborative Working Seminar - The Legal Considerations Booking Form

Delegate Name:
Delegate Email:
Job Title:
Organisation:
Address:
Invoice Address:
Telephone:

Please select one √	Edinburgh 2nd September 2010
	Morning Session	Afternoon Session
	Glasgow 3rd September 2010
	Morning Session	Afternoon Session

Fee Structure
Please indicate category applicable	Service providers employing less than 250 staff	Service providers employing more than 250 staff	Local Authorities
√	£60	£80	£100

Please do not send payment with your booking form. Acknowledgement of the form and confirmation of your place will be emailed within one week of receipt. Your Invoice and other appropriate documentation will follow. Please contact us if documentation is not received within two weeks of booking.

Cancellation – refunds will not be given in respect of cancellation notified to us on or within 14 days of the course date but substitutions will be accepted.

Please return the completed form to: liz.pettigrew@ccpscotland.org or
Post the completed form to Liz at: Housing Support Enabling Unit
8 – 12 Torphichen Street
Edinburgh EH3 8JQ