

COVID-19

This page provides you with links to key documents to help you and your organisation during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Scottish Government have gathered all of the current COVID-19 guidance including for employers, health, social care and education. Here is the link: Scottish Government Guidance

Below are links to key documents which may be of particular relevance for organisations delivering housing support / supported housing.

Funding

- COVID-19 Financial Support for Adult Social Care Providers from 1st July 2022 – SG letter here (13/06/22)

Guidance

- Infection, Prevention and Control standards – Healthcare Improvement Service here.
- Public Health Scotland update COVID-19 – Information and Guidance for Social, Community and Residential settings 16 May 2022 – you can access it on the PHS website here.
- From 18th April 2022 routine testing of social care staff working in supported housing or housing support where they do not provide personal care will come to an end: summary table.

Other Resources

- The Scottish Government has entered into an agreement with various partner agencies to continue the local PPE Hubs up until the end of September 2022. You can view the terms agreed between the Scottish Government, the NHS, Cosla, Scottish Care, CCPS and other partner agencies for the use of the local PPE Hubs here: PPE MoU (March 2022)